FCC Makes Look-up Website Available For Media Services Licensees Owing FY 2004 Regulatory Fees

The Federal Communications Commission announced today that media services licensees (excluding broadcast auxiliaries) now have an additional way to look up the regulatory fees they owe for FY 2004. Anyone needing this information can go to a special website established just for media services licensees (www.fccfees.com) and click on the link "Online Viewing of Fee Postcards." The fee amounts due and other information can be accessed by typing in either a station's call sign or facility identification number.

Regulatory fees payments must be received no later than 11:59 PM on August 19, 2004 to avoid being assessed a 25 per cent late payment penalty. All payments must include a FCC Registration Number (FRN) to be processed, and as was our policy last year, public notices to media services licensees will not be mailed. For additional information on FY 2004 regulatory fees, please check the agency's Internet web site at <http://www.fcc.gov/fees/regfees.html>.

For general assistance on regulatory fees, please contact the FCC CORES Help Desk at (877) 480-3201, Option 4.
