

Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau

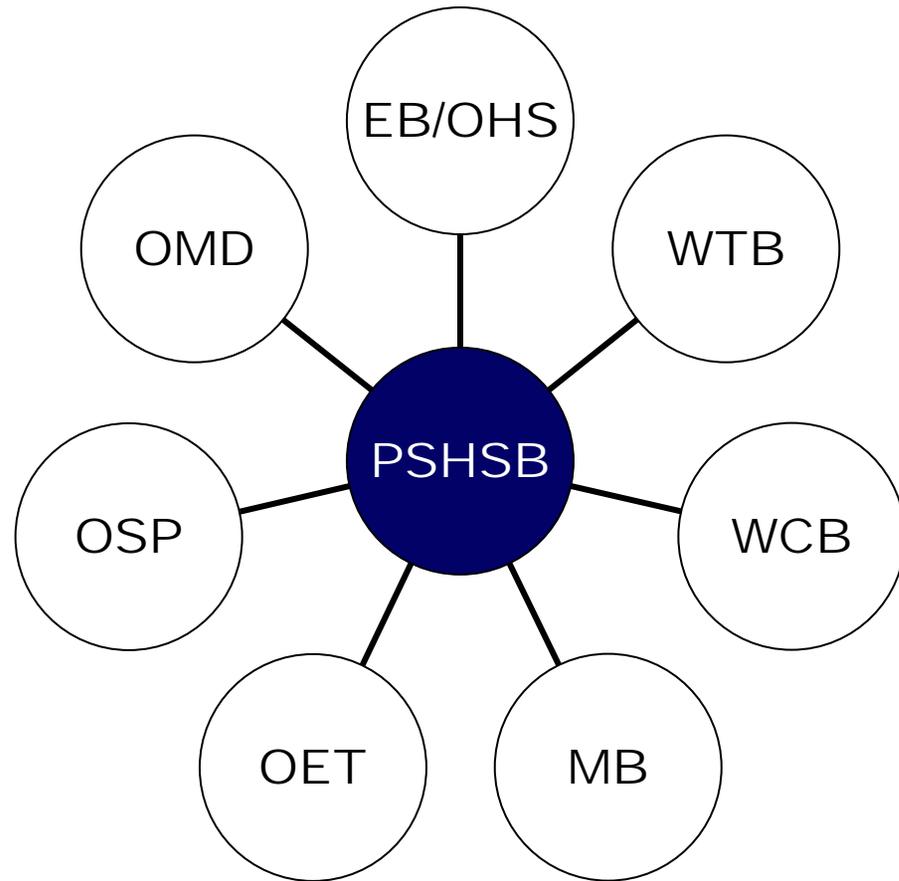

September 26, 2006 Commission Agenda Meeting

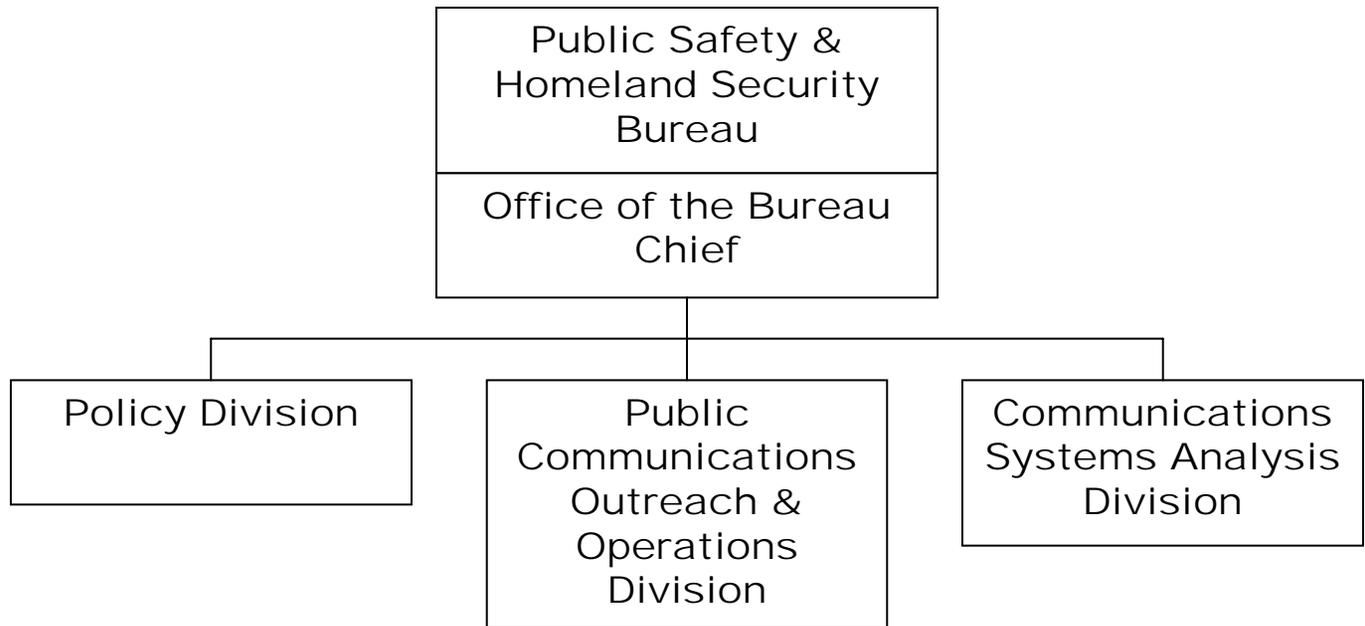

Background

- Advance statutory mandate
“...for the purpose of promoting safety of life and property”...
through the use of communications services
- Promote public safety
- Support response activities

Organizational Structure

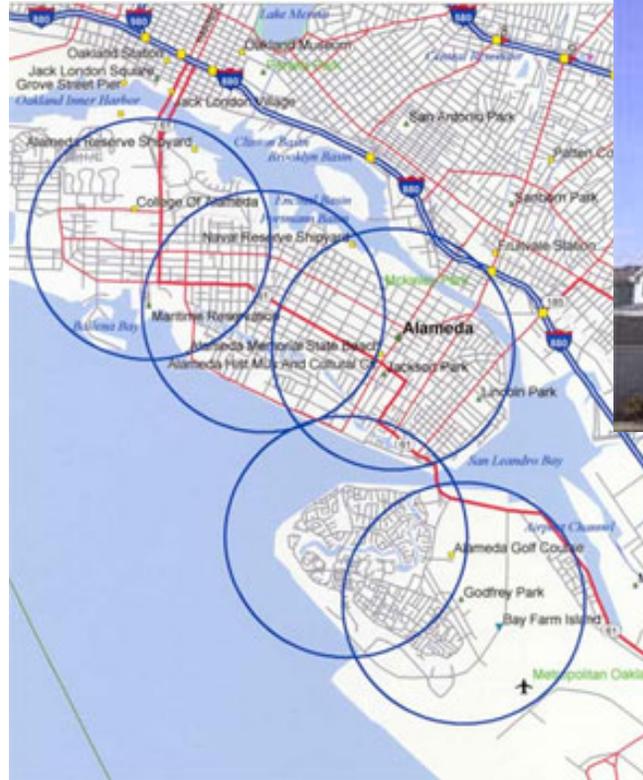

Key Priorities

- Public Safety
- Outreach
- Critical Infrastructure
- Emergency Preparedness
- Emergency Response
- COOP/COG

Promote Public Safety

Warnings
and Alerts

Promote Public Safety

- Access to Emergency Services (911/E911)

Promote Public Safety

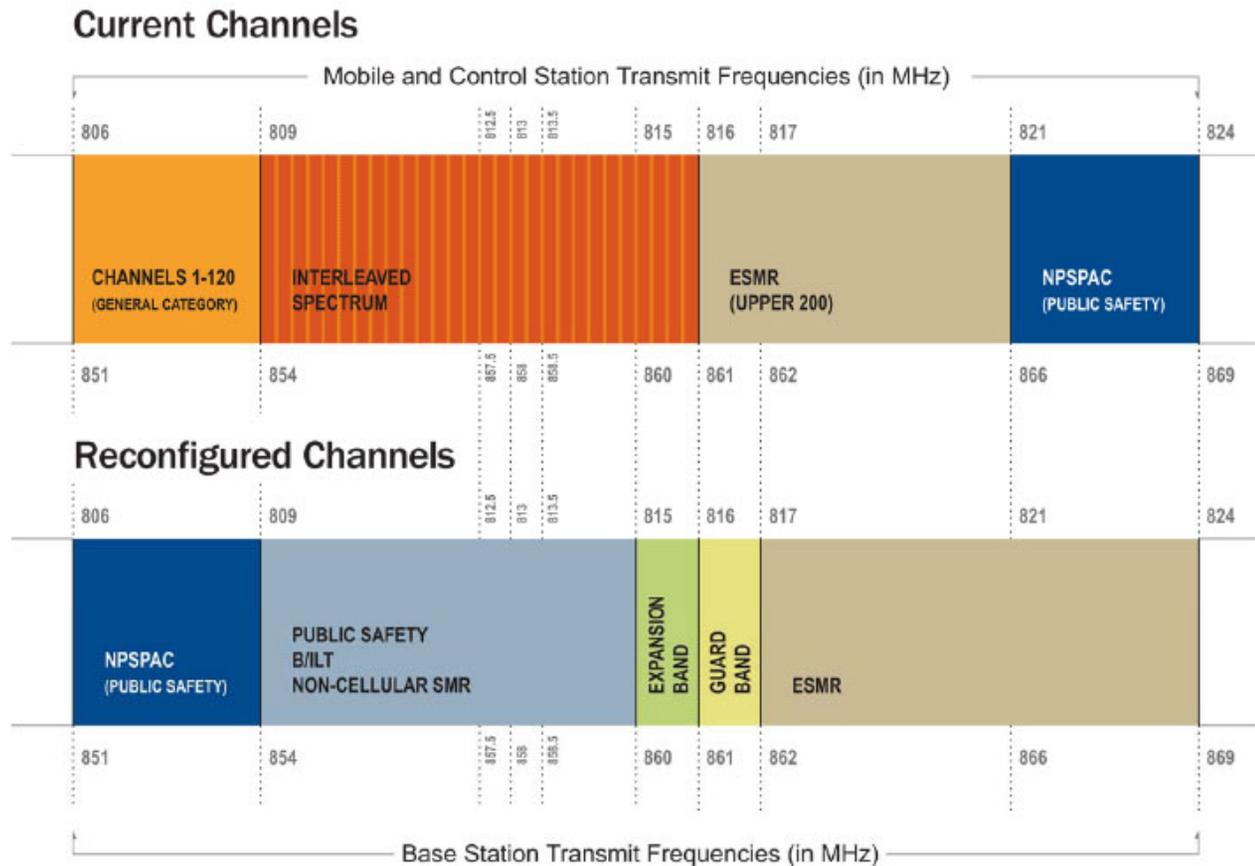

Interoperability
and Spectrum
for Public Safety

UNITED STATES
FREQUENCY
ALLOCATIONS
THE RADIO SPECTRUM

800 Mhz Rebanding

Promoting Public Safety

The new bureau will take the lead in overseeing the 800 MHz rebanding process to eliminate interference and make additional spectrum available to public safety.

Outreach

Public Safety Communications Clearing House:

- Communications Industry, including rural and non-traditional providers
- Federal, State, Tribal, & Local Partners
- Health Care Providers, Hospitals
- PSAPs
- First Responders

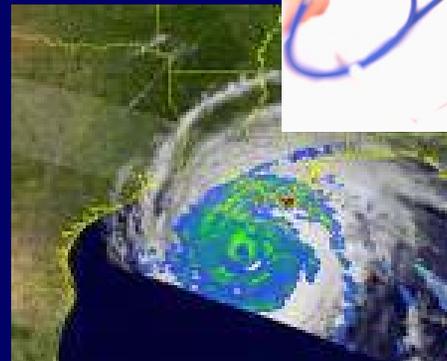

Critical Infrastructure

- Network Reliability
 - Network Outage Reporting System
 - Best Practices (Federal Advisory Committees)

Emergency Preparedness

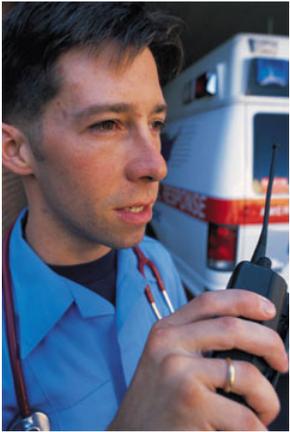

Communications Preparedness Plans for All Emergencies, including:

- Natural Disaster
- Pandemic
- Terrorist Incident

- Communications Service Providers
- Nontraditional communications service providers
- PSAPs
- First Responders
- Health Care, Hospitals

Emergency Preparedness

Working with and Providing Support for Federal,
State, Tribal,
and Local Partners

Emergency Response

Commission's Role in National Response Plan

- Monitor Communications Services and Infrastructure
- Assist with Rapid Response
- Coordinate Spectrum Needs

Emergency Response

Cut Through Red Tape

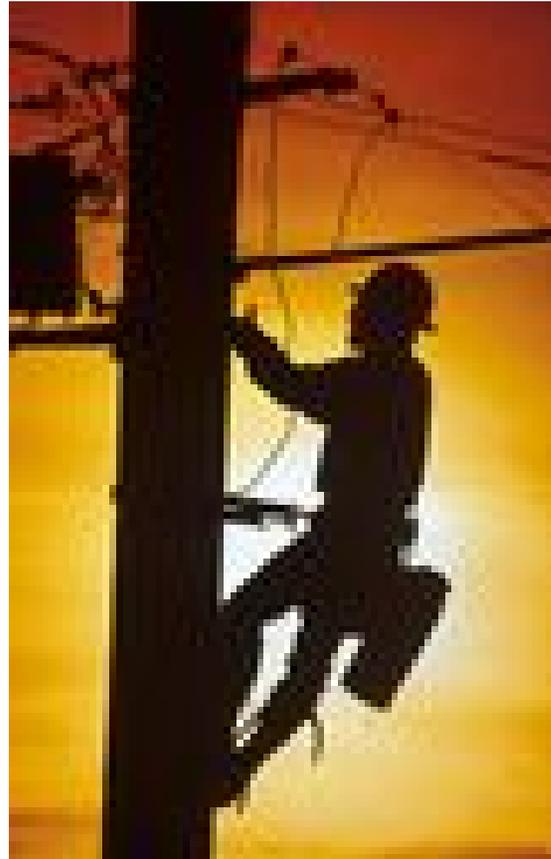

Provide
expedited relief
through Commission
Action

Emergency Response

FCC Priority Communications Programs

- Priority Restoration
 - TSP
- Priority Access
 - WPS

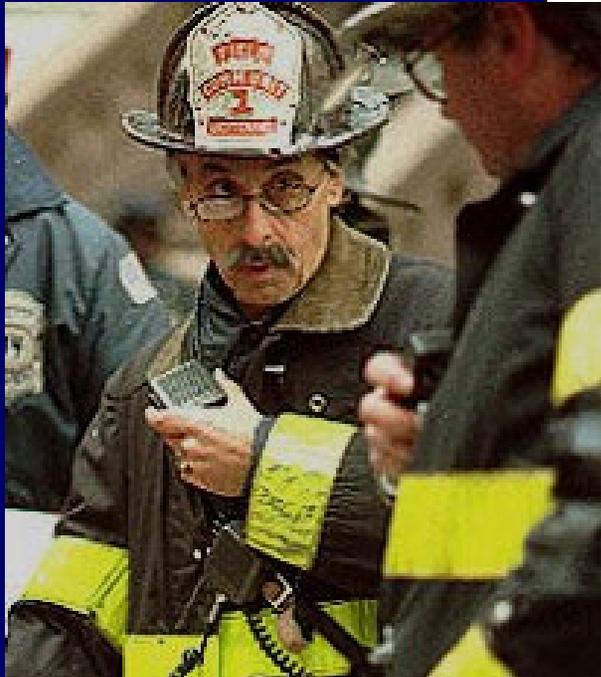

Keep the FCC Up
and Running in Times of Emergency

COOP/COG

- Continuity of Commission Operations (COOP)
 - Disaster
 - Pandemic
- Continuity of Government (COG)

Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau

September 26, 2006 Commission Agenda Meeting